U.S. Probation Officer

Place Nashville, Tennessee

Date March 22, 2016

ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the defendant has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No.   Nature of Noncompliance

1.        The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.

On March 15, 2016, a urine screen was collected which tested positive for marijuana. Prior to the screen, Mr. King admitted to using marijuana two weeks ago.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

James King began his term of supervised release on December 27, 2013, and is currently scheduled to complete his term on December 26, 2016. Mr. King is a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, and has secured a residence with his cousins, Freddie and Brenda King, at 700 Canoe Ridge Drive, Antioch, Tennessee. Mr. King is currently employed with The Green Truck Moving Company, in Nashville, Tennessee, as a supervisor of operations.

At the start of supervision, Mr. King was referred to Centerstone for a substance abuse assessment. The assessment was conducted on February 3, 2014, and no treatment was recommended at that time. Mr. King participated in the probation office's random drug testing program and never tested positive for any illegal substances.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The probation officer is requesting that no additional action be taken by the Court at this time. Mr. King has been verbally reprimanded and, he will be placed back into the probation office's random drug testing program. The U.S. Attorney's Office has been advised of the offender's noncompliance.
